Dt.28.09.2005

O R D E R:

This writ petition is filed for declaring the inaction of respondent Nos. 1 to 3 in not giving protection to the petitioner from respondent Nos. 4 to 11 by taking proper action and steps as unconstitutional and for a consequential direction to respondents 1 to 3 to take necessary steps to give protection to the petitioner.

It is the case of the petitioner that on 12.02.2004 her marriage took place with the third respondent. As the family members of her in-laws harassed the petitioner, she filed a complaint before the respondent authorities and in spite of repeated requests made by her, no action was taken by them to arrest the accused. Hence, this writ petition is filed.

The respondents filed counter stating that on a complaint given by the petitioner, a case in Crime No.169 of 2004 was registered, investigation was completed and charge sheet was also filed on the file of the Additional Munsif Magistrate, Mangalagiri on 25.04.2005. It is also stated that if the petitioner is having any grievance, she can seek her remedies before the concerned Court, in which C.C.No.205 of 2005 is pending.

Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the writ petition is disposed of directing the petitioner to seek her remedies before the Additional Munsif Magistrate, Mangalagiri. Insofar as the protection is concerned, the petitioner shall submit a detailed application before the third respondent and on filing such an application, the third respondent shall take appropriate action in the matter.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
